

FAMILY RESOURCES

Code of Ethics

Ethical conduct by the staff and volunteers of Family Resources is fundamental to the pursuit of its mission in the community. This Code of Ethics sets standards for behavior of all associated with Family Resources. Family Resources expects that all staff and volunteers adhere to the code. No Code of Ethics can provide rules to cover every circumstance. Questions involving ethical considerations of an activity or a course of conduct should be resolved in consultation with the Director and/or Board of Directors.

- Respect all individuals without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, gender, national origin or ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation or status as a disabled or handicapped individual;
- Respect confidentiality of all participants, Family Resources' staff and volunteers;
- Act with honesty, integrity and openness in all dealings as representatives of Family Resources;

I have read the above Code of Ethics and agree to adhere as long as I am affiliated with Family Resources.
